THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 9 1863

A Few Words to Grumblers

Almost every day we hear half hearted men, professing to be loyal, complaining and objecting to the policy of the Government in this, that, or the other respect, or they dislike the alleged imbecility of the Administration, or the weakness of some member of the Cabinet, and therefore they think the Government must go to the everlasting dogs Now we admit that it would be well if such a policy could be adopted, as would give satisfaction to every loyal man, it would be well if there were no fools or knaves in office—it would be well if Mr Lincoln had more decision, it would be well if everything could suit everybody, but unfortunately we are not in that kind of a country or that sort of a world, we are obliged to take things as we find them, and if the President is as weak and as wicked even, as the meanest man who holds office under him—and that would be low enough in all conscience—if his policy were ten fold more repulsive than it is, it would still be the duty of every loyal man to stand by the Government, because only thus can the Government be maintained In the midst of war, when union and instant, hearty co-operation on the part of the people are demanded, only this course is safe or patriotic If men's minds are filled with doubts, and their enthusiasm and energy chilled and abated by speculative fears and questionings of all kinds on subjects which must be trusted to the President, most certainly the Nation's strength will be wasted and its greatness vanish away

It is no time now to discuss the propriety of any measure, which the President sees fit to adopt. We do not mean of course that the abstract right of criticism, or exercise of judgment are denied, but that while peril is upon us, we must act as the Government demands This is loyalty, and nothing else is. While the enemy is coming on us with fixed bayonets, it is foolish to stack arms and go to arguing about Emancipation or Negro Regiments, or Gen. McClellan. The thing to be done, and to be done instantly, is to meet and conquer the enemy. If we dislike the Proclamation, we can let it alone, if we do not believe in colored troops, let those who do raise and use them; if we admire Gen McClellan, (and we do as much as any one,) let us not forget that he and a legion like him are of far less value or consequence than the country and its liberties. If our city was on fire, and general conflagration threatened us would it be sensible for men to say—"We don't like the Mayor, the Chief Engineer is a fool and a knave, we will not assist in quenching the rushing flames, because stalwart negroes, with willing zeal are working at some of the brakes?" Or if a robber should enter our dwelling at night, should we refuse to resist him by every means in our reach—to set our dogs upon him, to employ our negro servants against him, to violate the laws even, if necessary, in self defence? To-day, the hot fires of Secession are consuming the land—rebel thieves and pirates are breaking into and stealing our heritage, and yet men, who pretend to be patriotic are growling because, like petted children, they cannot have all that they want and as they want it! Shame on such patriotism! Infamous as sin is such loyalty! While pettishly quarreling about the form, it is putting in jeopardy and forever sacrificing the substance

And we pray, most earnestly we pray those who have been, perhaps thoughtlessly, pursuing this course, to consider what the end must be. If they desire the Government to succeed in this deadly and dangerous conflict, their loyalty must be outspoken and decided, if they wish its defeat, their present timid heartless, negative patriotism will contribute as effectually to its accomplishment as anything they can do, until they actually bear arms in support of the rebellion

A LESSON TO THE DEMOCRATS OF THE NORTH.—The Richmond Enquirer, that scorns all proposals for restoring the Union of the States, and actually spits upon the Northern Democrats who ask their return to the Constitution, says

"Talk of the recuperative energies of nature—that is, the uprising of the old Democratic party—restoring vigor to the Constitution! We tell you there would be no Democratic party at all, and no whispers about the Constitution but for the wholesome lesson at Vicksburg and the bold philosophy of Fredericksburg It is our Generals and soldiers who cause them to remember that they once had a Constitution, and give them the heart to say so."

That is very much like the truth There is no Democratic party at all It was whipped out of being in 1860, and the nominal Democracy which has been flirting about since is no more like the old party, than ashes is like corn. This last is a gang of cowards, they grow brave when they hear of loyal defeats and are bitter when they fear that under the Conscription Law their precious carcasses may be exposed to hot shell or rifle balls — They are united in nothing save hate to free him and good government and are only happy when they get a chance to [illegible] of [illegible] they would [illegible] Jeff Davis [illegible] would be a blessing [illegible] whether he would deem their presen[illegible] any great advantage Perhaps, however, he regards their present services as quite as valuable as any they could render in Richmond and [illegible] But it takes so much time and pains to watch and control the rascals that we [illegible] they would go or behave better

Letter from Auburn

[FROM [illegible] CORRESPONDENT]

AUBURN March 28 1863

After the equinox we have pleasant weather with frosty nights that keep back the [illegible] we wait for and leave most of the miners idle Some are at work, but not to advantage, and the emigration to Boise and other localities still continues The [illegible] been a large population [illegible] here last fall judging from the numbers that have been leaving all winter, and the number still remaining

BURNT RIVER MORMON BASIN AND BOISE MINES

The Burnt river and Mormon Basin region is already attracting considerable attention and parties have gone over there to [illegible] ranches and garden spots and to hunt for claims The news from Boise is uninviting Still snow to contend with and little gold produced Some come back from in the [illegible] and believing in $100 000 claims, like [illegible] enthusiastic correspondent Daily and [illegible] men, of prudent judgment and experience are expressing the opinion that many will be disappointed and that the general character of the country is overrated though many rich claims undoubtedly have been and will be found Flour was selling at forced sales at 24 cents last week, though the regular price was 40 cents per pound groceries and provisions ranged from 70 to 90 cents Not much decline in general prices Flour here is selling at 16 to 18 cents per pound and a large supply in stores and in private hands Prices here are very reasonable, and no danger of a rise.

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS

Some two hundred mounted Indian hunters crossed Snake river a few days since to scour the country this side believing large bands of Indians to be located on the Owyhee river, and that much stolen stock was there The Snakes too, have changed their field of operation to this side, and a few nights since they drove off fifty head of animals from the lower part of Burnt river The fact is, the Snakes are doing a land office business just now, and must have some five hundred horses and mules appropriated I hear of a pack train driven off on Burnt river, and the freight being stacked up on the roadside Packers are becoming afraid to travel the Boise road, and many are changing their field of operations

EAGLE MOUNTAIN DIGGINGS

I have received a note, dated March 25th, from a friend in the new diggings—of which I wrote you last week—in the Eagle mountains He says

These diggings are situated on Pine creek which runs east and empties into Snake river below the mouth of Powder The discoverer is D G Casson and the miners' meeting held here yesterday named them after him The Casson district includes all the country on Pine creek and its tributaries We have laid out a town called Cassonville The snow averages about two feet deep in Pine creek valley Some call the range Eagle Mountains

The gentleman who brought this note showed some of the gold found there which appeared to be of a superior quality, and was what is commonly called scale gold, and rather fine The prospecting thus far had been confined to one small gulch, which promised good pay and the diggings were quite shallow. Only seventeen men had been in these mines when my informant left, but he met many on their way on his return These mines will be distant from Auburn some sixty miles, when a direct road can be traveled, and will not be more than eighty or one hundred miles from Walla Walla A trail can be made from Grand Ronde directly over the mountains not a very great distance At present animals cannot get within ten or twelve miles of the mines for the snow. There is no certainty of the extent of these mines, but some enterprising and reliable men have undertaken to develop them, and we will soon have fuller returns from them Those who come back have never made extravagant reports but merely report good prospects

DITCHES.

The work of building ditches progresses slowly, and the Canal Company have still a large amount of money to expend and work to do, before they can satisfy the demands of this vicinity

DEAD

Auburn has recently met with a severe loss in the death of Mrs Cynthia M Stafford, who has been usefully employed as a teacher here the past fall and winter Mrs Stafford was originally from Potsdam, New York, where her friends still live

FERRIES

There is a new ferry established on Snake river a short distance above the mouth of Powder river which claims to be upon the shortest route to the Boise mines Glover & Co have incorporated to make a road connecting with the old emigrant road on the Grand Ronde hill crossing Snake river at the point above mentioned, and thence striking directly for Boise mines Those interested claim it to be a cut off on both of Snake river, and that natural facilities are offered where their road has been located. The public will soon be able to judge for themselves as to the most practicable routes I would merely caution those who travel beyond the Powder river valley against attacks from the Indians who will most certainly soon turn their attention towards travelers, and those occupying exposed positions upon the road, and the result may be a great loss of life, ere anything can be done to prevent it Many people [illegible] a terrible Indian war in prospect and that the volunteers from Boise now out may find more than their match before they return

FATAL AFFRAY

A fatal affray occurred at Boise just before the Express left George Reed from Santiam Oregon, was shot by Isaac Warrick formerly of Crescent City and died in consequence The difficulty occurred about a mining claim and the murder must have been unprovoked [illegible] as the Coroner's jury which was called after the death of Reed, returned a verdict of willful murder against Warrick who was then absent with the party of volunteers hunting Indians There is no doubt a desperate set of ruffians at Boise, and as a consequence Auburn and its vicinity [illegible] all the desperadoes have left for a more genial clime

THE MAILS

Our mail is decidedly a slow institution as I see a letter of mine published in your paper only five weeks after its date Wells Fargo & Co's Express is at present the surest and far the quickest means of communication

It is now stated that the failure of Gen Banks to attack Port Hudson on the night of March 14th was owing to the fact that Farragut started his fleet at night instead of just before daylight eight hours before the time agreed upon, thus preventing Banks from getting his artillery in a position to draw their entrenchment fire Banks and Grover are reported to have been within 600 yards of the enemy's batteries, on the night the fleet passed Port Hudson

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents Drayage, &c, necessary to carry on his business but no farmer merchant, mechanic or any person, has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year And as many sources of income such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks Insurance Stock Savings Banks interest, &c (they having already paid the Income tax,) are not again taxed It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income that there may be no dispute with the Assessor

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount less $600

A man may outside of his business, spend all and even more than his profits in the business; nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And so with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June 1863 And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June, as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—The Council met last evening at 8 o'clock. Present—Messrs Hallock, Holmes, Silver, Williams and Mr President.

A report of Committee on Fire and Water was received, relative to the completion of Engine House No. 1, accompanied by a resolution ordering the payment of the bill therefor.

Report of the City Treasurer, for the quarter ending March 31st, read and referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

Committee on Fire and Water made a report relative to the purchase of fire hose, which was accepted.

Claims against the city amounting to $1[illegible] were read and ordered paid. Also, claims [illegible] the city amounting to $1,100 or $1,200 were read and laid on the table. One of these lost claims was the judgment of the [illegible] Court in favor of G W Vaughn, as [illegible] against the city.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the Street Commissioner to repair all the street [illegible] needing repairs. Also, a resolution [illegible] the thanks of the Board to Hon O [illegible], for the faithful and efficient manner in which he had presided over the Council for the past year.

Whereupon the Council adjourned, sine die.

WARNING TO MERCHANTS.—We are informed on good authority that certain parties went to [San Francisco], a short time since, and bought a large quantity of old and spoiled bacon for [illegible] nothing, and brought it up to this city [illegible] was washed and smoked, put in gunnies [and] a lot shipped to Victoria by last [illegible] for fresh Oregon bacon. This bacon, [when] it reaches here, is absolutely rotten—so [much so] that it has to be scraped and smoked [illegible] and give it a good appearance. We [warn] the merchants of Victoria against this [illegible]. It is by just such scoundrels that O[regon] has been seriously injured. All [kinds] of refuse butter, lard, bacon, &c, &c, have been shipped by these swindlers for fresh Oregon produce, while it is very often the case that such articles were shipped from the [illegible] to Portland, repacked and branded, and sold for the best the country affords. [illegible] a course to the country, and [should] be dealt with as thieves.

[ANNUAL] MEETING.—The annual meeting [of the] holders of the Oregon Telegraph [Company] was held at the Pioneer Hotel, last [illegible]. The report of Mr. Strong, the [illegible] was read and accepted, and the board for last year was re-elected. The [line] is expected to be completed by the first of [illegible], or sooner, if wire can be obtained [illegible] sufficient to replace that lost on [illegible] out here. Offices at Portland and [illegible] to be opened immediately on the [completion] of these two places by the wire.

[SCHOOL] RECEPTION.—The Trinity Episcopal School for boys, located on Fifth, between Ash and Pine streets, will hold a reception [illegible] (Friday) afternoon, at half-past two o'clock. The school, Rev. P. E. Hyland [illegible] and Charles Dusenbery As[sistant], was opened about one month since, [illegible] scholars, and now numbers [illegible]. Parents and others are respectfully [invited to be] present at the reception, and [examine] the courses of studies pursued at the [school].

[illegible] ACADEMY.—We are informed that [the] Academy and Female Seminary [will commence] its summer term on Monday [the] 13th inst., under the superintendence of Mr. and Mrs. Frambres. This [gentleman] and lady have the reputation of [being] the best instructors of youth in the [State, and] the above institution will undoubtedly prosper finely under their guidance. It [is expected] that a large number of pupils will be in attendance during the coming term.

OREGON TELEGRAPH.—We learn from Mr [J.] E. Strong that the telegraph wire is stretched to some distance beyond Aurora, [or] about twenty-five miles. The work is rapidly progressing, and will soon be completed to Yreka, at which time we will be in direct communication by telegraph with the [Atlan]tic States.

FURNITURE SALE.—Mr. A. B. Richardson [will sell] at auction on next Saturday, the 11th [inst], a large lot of fine furniture, consisting [of mahogany] bureaus, bedsteads, washstands, [&c], &c. Those in want of articles of this [kind] will do well to be on hand.

The Statesman says, Mr. G. T. Waller's [house], in Eola, was burned to the ground [on the 1st] of April. The fire originated in a [stove]pipe placed too near the ceiling, in the [illegible]. Most of the books, pictures and [clothing] of the family were burned. Entire [loss], about $1,200.

Consumption Can be Cured!—A fair trial [of Dr.] Hall's BALSAM, will convince the most skeptical sufferer, that this medicine has no equal in the [world] for the cure of the different stages of this dread [disease]. Every CONSUMPTIVE ought to read [the ce]rtificates of remarkable cures, and know its value.

FAMILY

SEWING MACHINES

Unsurpassed by any for beauty, simplicity of construction and efficacy in working and will do

IN A PERFECT MANNER,

A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money, but if you want either for your own use, you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

LADD & WEBSTER'S

use a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.

They make a tight lock stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.

Every machine is sent from our office threaded, and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning noon and night, it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Trained Officers for the Navy.—Admiral Farragut, in one of his dispatches, says that we are in want of trained officers for the navy, and to the absence of such officers attributes the disgraceful surrender of the steamer Harriet Lane. The navy department, and the navy department alone, are responsible for the want of efficient officers, by limiting to age the employment of many capable men, who have tendered their services to the navy. An officer of the merchant service, if over forty years of age, no matter how healthy or experienced he may be, cannot, according to the navy regulations, receive the appointment of acting master or acting ensign. The person who framed such regulations was not only ignorant of the men of the sea, but of man in general. At forty, and up to sixty, and even beyond sixty, healthy men are more determined than at any other periods of life, because their characters are formed, they care less for life, and have more experience.

Especially is this so with seamen. A man who has served twenty or thirty years at sea is not frightened at shadows, nor likely to give up a ship entrusted to his care, while she floats. In looking over disasters for nearly twenty-five years, we have noticed that nearly every merchant ship abandoned under questionable circumstances has been commanded by men under forty years of age, and that, on the other hand, old men have often, if not always, shown the most consummate skill and untiring energy in saving their ships, when dismasted or leaky. Who are the most noted ship-masters at the present day? We answer, men over fifty years of age, and this answer will apply to the navy as well as to the merchant service. To reject the services of men who are over forty years old, is, therefore, not only absurd, but detrimental to the public service. We will relate an instance of the treatment received from the department by Capt. Oliver S. Cleveland, of Nantucket, who applied twice for the office of either acting master or acting ensign, and was not even honored with a reply.

He was forty-one years of age, had been twenty-two years at sea, four of which he had commanded the ship Margaret Scott on a whaling voyage, during which he had circumnavigated the globe. Fourteen years he had been an officer, and was highly recommended by those for whom he had sailed, yet, because he was forty-one years old, his services were declined. But, Capt. Cleveland, to his honor be it recorded, was determined to serve his country, if not at sea, at least on shore. He enlisted as a private in the Massachusetts Forty-fifth regiment, and without any influence but his own good conduct, is now orderly sergeant. To reject such men, on account of age, shows the stupidity of those who have charge of this department of the public service.

But we have another charge against the navy department. More than a year ago, a gentleman well versed in nautical affairs, who had served in ships of war, had been sperm whaling, and was well acquainted with the merchant service, wrote to an influential officer of the department a plan which could have been easily carried out in the discipline of ships of war, to supply the loss of officers in action. It was simply the application of the old fashioned great gun exercise to the most experienced men of the ship. At a gun when No. 1 is down, No. 2 takes his place, and so on, while there is a man left. In other words, every man at a gun is trained to perform the duty of captain, and of every other man. The gentleman in question suggested that the captains of ships of war, after training every officer, warrant and petty, to take command of the vessels and put them through [illegible] in manœuvres, should then select from among the crew the most capable, and train them in like manner.

By this simple process a vessel might be fought successfully after all her officers were down. We all know the frigate Chesapeak was lost for want of officers, and now we have to deplore the capture of the Harriet Lane from the same cause.

As a means of discipline this plan would work admirably. It would develop thinking among the men; accustom them to command, show in exercise whether they could be trusted in action, and would silence pretenders, who often indulge in sneers at the greenness of officers.

This plan is general in almost every whaler. In a four-boat ship, there are three mates, four boat-steerers, and a ship keeper, all of whom are at times entrusted with the charge of the deck.

If the navy department want trained officers of experience they must not be precise about age. Good health, good character and capacity, ought to be the only rules applied to officers who volunteer to serve in the navy. In the war of 1812, British naval officers asserted that we were indebted for our success to having the mates and masters of merchant ships to act as midshipmen and masters' mates, while the like duties had to be performed in their ships by boys ranging from twelve to eighteen years of age.—Boston Traveler.

A Popular Error.—When gold is at 50 per cent. premium we frequently hear parties say that a paper dollar is only worth 50 cents, and that it depreciates to an equal amount with the rise of gold. This is a popular error, and arises from the confounding of premium and discount. Fifty per cent taken from an article is much greater than the addition of that amount. If we add 50 per cent to 10 it makes it 15, or one-third more; if we deduct 50 per cent. it reduces it to 5, or one-half. So a paper dollar, when gold is worth 50 per cent premium, is worth 66⅔ cents, instead of 50; and when gold is at 60, it is worth 62½ cents instead of 40. The following is a simple way of showing this. Five gold dollars at 160 are equal to eight paper dollars at 100, hence each paper dollar is just five eigths of the other, or 62½ cents. But the premium on gold is not now a test of the value of the bank and Government circulation. The premium varies from day to day, according to the caprice of the brokers and speculators, and it is absurd to quote the results of their alternate inflations and depreciations, based on constantly changing circumstances, as a standard of value.

At a woman's convention a gentleman remarked that a woman was the most wicked thing in creation. "Sir!" was the indignant reply of one of the ladies "woman was made from man, and if one rib is so wicked, what must the whole body be?"

From Rev J Newton Brown D D, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M Jackson of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J NEWTON BROWN.
Philadelphia, June 23, 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

Philadelphia August 23, 1862

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well gentlemen your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am and have been for the last four years a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr Malone, restored to life

The GREAT SUCCESS of this CENTURY as an AID to PRACTICAL MEDICINE

The Mysterious Problem of Material Nature, Electricity! made subservient for the Cure of all Nervous and Spinal Diseases

THAT THIS PRINCIPLE, SUCCESSFULLY APPLIED to the vital [illegible] of the system, will prove the great a light for necessity long wanting by physicians, to aid them in their [illegible] organic and functional derangements of the human body. It is a part of that great principle of vitality known as nervous influence, and necessarily must have much to do in [illegible] diseased action.

Too Much Cannot be Said

In its praise, for it is highly probable that in health there is an exact equilibrium of the Electric principle; and should this secret and an idea equipoise of health be broken or [illegible]—should the body be negatively electrified when it should be positively charged—is not the current broken and is there not a war of forces going on in the system. This needs correcting and in order that the [illegible] of the body should be perceptible to remedial agents we must first restore and

Awaken the Magnetic Life within us

The spinal and sympathetic nerve systems. Believing [illegible] firmly in the great magnetic or electrical [illegible] of the earth with its influence upon our bodies in health and disease I am led to take advantage of the [illegible] through which to awaken attention to the subject, that good may come to all

No Compromise with Disease.

Give the body strength and nature will relieve herself. Purify the life-blood render the stomach liver heart, kidney and all the natural functions active by ELECTRICITY [illegible] and at once the aged the palsied, the [illegible] the dispirited, the melancholic the dyspeptic and the [illegible] will revive under its benign influence

To the Ladies of California,

Dr Van Zandt's success with complaints of [illegible] in family and office practice, is owing to his [illegible] of the origin of all their maladies. Ladies can [illegible] with entire confidence, as he is no speculator [illegible] but is proving himself the only member of the legitimate profession in California who is really successful [illegible] curing those ills which are the peculiar province of the sex. His high appreciation of their delicately [illegible] organism together with their great sympathetic life, renders him doubly able to assuage those silent [illegible] which they bear so patiently and so long. No more [illegible] need longer afflict our home circles, for he can awaken the stricken energies, restore the wonted [illegible] of the body, awaken the melancholic and desponding, [illegible] these drains which cause so much anxiety, cure the protean maladies which have so long

Baffled the Skill of Physicians.

Develope appetite life and animation dispel nervous headache sinking at the stomach wandering pains, [illegible] of strength, extreme debility and lifelessness, [illegible] cough sleepiness, unpleasant dreams and that great depression of life's powers, which go to render her life misery and death a boon. All the world over wherever disease exists, whether special to the soil and climate or common to all regions—epidemic or casual, [illegible] or chronic, contagious or non-contagious—it is as [illegible] to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium, [illegible] all in California, as it is to give food to the starving. [illegible] statement is based upon a series of facts extending [illegible] many years and verified by hundreds of patients; [illegible] no principle of science no rule of experience, no [illegible] any well known cause, rests upon more sure and [illegible] foundations, than those which underlie the [illegible] reputation of Electricity for the cure of all nervous [illegible] of the body faulty digestion mental and physical [illegible] or prostration coughs, asthma, wandering pains of a rheumatic, gouty or mercurial character, and all forms [illegible] the result of scrofula or cachectic habit of body.

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten by the eye and ear of [illegible] Dr Van Zandt has made these afflictions an especial study, and that he is the only Surgeon in our State who has a diploma for that branch of practice. Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action, and are cured by his electro-galvanic battery—as [illegible] squinting, cataract, floating specks before the vision, twitching of the eyelids, nervous deafness, [illegible] and buzzing noises in the ears, giddiness, etc. All [illegible] successfully done on those delicate organs of [illegible]

STOMACH BITTERS

THE LARGE AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING demand for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS on the Pacific coast, renders it the [illegible] of the Manufacturers and Proprietors to place their [illegible] citizens west of the Rocky Mountains fully on their guard against the PERNICIOUS COUNTERFEITS which have recently been introduced in California, and other parts of the Pacific coast, by IMPOSTERS who have [illegible] this great RESTORATIVE

These villians, who subsist by pirating, have cunning equal to their rascality, by selecting this popular STOMACH BITTERS. Some dealers of whom better things might have been expected, have connived at this IMPOSITION, for the purpose of sharing in the [illegible]. On the principle that the receiver is as culpable as the thief, and that the passer of spurious money is as bad as the forger, the makers and venders of COUNTERFEIT HOSTETTER'S BITTERS stand on the same moral level.

The public are cautioned not to purchase any preparation purporting to be HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS without first scrutinizing well the packages and so as to be certain that they get the GENUINE, or purchase from Dealers of known integrity who would [illegible] guilty of selling SPURIOUS ARTICLES, or of [illegible] [illegible] Agent Messrs Hostetter, Smith & Dean, No [illegible] Montgomery street Russ Block, San Francisco.

The COUNTERFEITERS doubtless hoped, and [illegible] that in regions thousands of miles away from the [illegible] the GENUINE BITTERS they would be able to palm off their SPURIOUS COMPOUND with less chance of detection and molestation. In this expectation they will be disappointed. The undersigned are determined to protect themselves against fraud and their far off customers against its baleful consequences and have no doubt that through their agents, the influence of the press and the terrors of the law they will succeed in crushing IMPOSTURE in its distant fields of operation, as they have already nearer home

The general acceptance of the BITTERS as the best known preventive and remedy for the malarious [illegible] of unhealthy soils and climates is a just tribute to their disinfectant and vitalizing properties of the [illegible]. Whoever goes to the gold mines or travels through or settles in any portion of our Pacific territory without previously furnishing himself with a supply of this [illegible] procurable antidote to the effect of insalubrious air and bad water does so at the imminent risk of [illegible] life and in the face of a volume of testimony to its [illegible] and corrective properties which ought to satisfy [illegible] incredulous. The unacclimatized will find it the best protective against the epidemic diseases of the country, against all epidemic maladies. Furnished with this preventive the pioneer may fearlessly prosecute his search for gold and silver in valleys and plains where his less fortunate predecessors have left their bones. The [illegible] and unwholesome water which serves alike to quench thirst and obtain his treasure, may be drunk with [illegible] if mixed with this powerful and agreeable [illegible] and the miasma which reeks from the soil of the [illegible] regions will have no injurious effect upon his system [illegible] and fortified by this pure and wholesome [illegible] [illegible] stomachic. He may sleep wrapped in his blanket or buffalo-robe on the damp ground by night, and walk beneath the hot beams of the sun by day without fearing the usual penalties of remittent fever diarrhea, dysentery and bilious colic provided he reinforces his constitution, his appetite and his strength by a moderate and regular use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. Miners and others who are obliged to live wholly or chiefly on animal food without vegetables will find the preparation [illegible] as a protective against scurvy and other [illegible] diseases

Of the above mentioned uses of the BITTERS, the proprietors of the preparation do not of course speak from actual experience but they have the next best evidence in the world viz THE SPONTANEOUS TESTIMONY of multitudes of returned Californians and of hundreds NOW ENGAGED IN MINING in various parts of the Pacific States

While recommending their Bitters strongly and earnestly, as a preventive, they further would call attention also to its eminent qualities as a restorative. In fever and ague, dumb ague and all that class of intermittents it is the best medicine that can be taken. It breaks up the chills and restores the strength of the patient. For dyspepsia and every form of indigestion it is an absolute [illegible] combining the properties of a gentle cathartic with those of an alterative and mild stimulant; it has an excellent effect in constipation colic piles sickness at the stomach, nervous headache, spasms and diseases of the blood and bowels generally. It also possesses important antibilious elements and as a means of regulating the action of the liver and other secret organs, has no equal among the medicines of the day. Ladies in delicate health whatever their ailments may be, will find great benefit from its cordial, tonic, sustaining properties and as an Elixir Vitæ for the aged and infirm it stands alone among vegetable tonics. In fact HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS can be conscientiously recommended on the authority of perhaps the strongest array of voluntary witnesses that have ever testified to the value of any advertised preparation, as the purest, the most reliable, the most general and successful constitutional and physical invigorant, preventive and restorative now before the public
